REMARKS.

WE have in this Catalogue, the pleasure of presenting the first portion of the library of Mr. E. M. Boyle, of Philadelphia, who is one of the few of old time collectors left. He has been known to collectors and booksellers, both in this country and abroad, for nearly fifty years, and having a deep interest in English Literature in all its branches has accumulated a very large library. As a natural consequence he has secured many items of the greatest literary as well as bibliographical importance. Like all book-lovers, his hobby ran in some channels, more than others, consequently he has made a collection of works by, or relating to Lord Byron, probably for its extent, not equalled by any other private collection. His Library includes many great rarities and presentation copies; but of this we will speak later, as also of his collection of Incunabula, Early Bibles, Illuminated Manuscripts, Curiosa and General Literature, History, Biography, &c., catalogues of which will appear later.

The present Catalogue embraces that portion of the library which relates to the early English Drama and Poetry, Early English Authors, Annalists and Historians, as well as rare translations of the Greek and Latin Classics. The first part of the Sale embraces the Shakespeariana, in which will be found a very good copy of the Second Folio of 1632, and the First American Edition of Shakespeare; a Set of the 4to Facsimiles; many of the most important editions of Shakespeare, edited by the various commentators; and works relating to the life and history of the Poet; Controversial Essays; the Shakespeare-Bacon Controversy, &c.

In the General Literature will be found Codrington's Aesop's Fables of 1666; Barclay's Argenis, 1636; First and Second Editions of Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy; First Edition of Chapman's Homer, 1616; Lidgate's Chaucer of 1561; Speight's Chaucer of 1602, and Urry's Chaucer of 1721; Cooper's Chronicle, 1565 (which Shakespeare consulted); First Folio Davenant of 1673; Drayton's Poly-Olbion, 1613-22; First Edition of Fairfax's Tasso, 1600; First Edition of Ben Jonson, 1616; First English Edition of Montaigne's Essays, 1603; First Edition of Milton's Paradise Lost; First Edition of Pope's Windsor Forest, 1713; Rare Dunciad, 1728; Iliad and Odyssey of Homer, 1715-26, and His Collected Works, 1717; Sleidan's Chronicle, 1560; Spenser's Faerie Queen, 1611; First Folio Beaumont and Fletcher, 1647; First Edition of The Tatler, 1709-10; a large number of Early Dramas and The Works of Early Dramatists, and many books of a minor character, but which are sought after by the collector.

Included in the Sale is a Magnificent Copy of the First Folio Audubon's Birds of America, 1831-39, and Audubon and Bachman's Quadrupeds, 1845-48. This is one of the finest sets ever offered for sale, and is enclosed in a handsome ebonized cabinet.

By John James Audubon. Illustrated with woodcuts. Edinburgh, 1831-39. 5 vols. Imperial 8vo, full red morocco, gilt, gilt edges.

AND

AUDUBON AND BACHMAN'S QUADRUPEDS.

Audubon, John James, and Bachman, Rev. Jno. The

Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America. With one hundred and fifty superb plates, drawn from nature and beautifully colored by hand.

3 vols. Elephant folio, half red morocco, top edges gilt, New York, 1845-1848, and Text, 3 vols. Imperial 8vo, half red morocco, gilt, top edges gilt, New York, 1849.

The Birds were originally published in 87 parts, supposed to be of five plates each, during 1827-38; subsequently bound in four volumes, each furnished with a title leaf as in the copy, but with no text. The plates were furnished without text to avoid the necessity of furnishing copies gratis to the public libraries of England, agreeable to the English Laws of copyright. Owing to the destruction by fire of the stock and copper plates, and ruinous effects of the war in the Southern States where most copies were sold, the work has become extremely rare. It is by far the most elaborate ornithological work ever published. This copy is fine and clean. All the plates are mounted on linen. Plates Nos. 235, 297 and 435 have been trimmed and inlaid. It is doubtful, however, whether a finer copy could be had.

The Quadrupeds is also a magnificent, fine, crisp and clean copy. Plates Nos. 77 and 78 were torn and have been repaired. The two works together making the most sumptuous publication ever gotten up on the Birds and Quadrupeds of any country.

Both works will be sold as whole, or one lot. They are encased in a handsome ebonized cabinet, with sliding apartments for the larger volumes, and shelf for the descriptive volumes.

DRAYTON'S POLY-OLBION, 1613-1622.

- 269 Drayton, Michael. Poly-Olbion, or a Chorographical Description of Tracts, Rivers, Mountaines, Forests, and other parts of this Renowned Isle of Great Britaine, with Intermixture of the most Remarquable Stories, Antiquities, Wonders, Rarities, Pleasures, and Commodities of the same, Digested in a Poem by Michael Drayton, with a Table added, for direction to those occurrences of Story and Antiquitie, whereunto the course of the volume easily leades not. London, printed by H. L. for Matthew Lownes, J. Browne, J. Helme, and J. Busbie, 1613.—The Second Part, or A Continuance of Poly-Olbion from the Eighteenth Song, containing all the Tracts, Rivers, Mountaines, and Forrests, intermixt with the most Remarkable Stories, Antiquities, Wonders, Rarities, Pleasures, and Commodities of the East and Northerne Parts of this Isle, lying betwixt the two Famous Rivers of Thames and Tweed. London, printed by Augustine Mathews for John Marriott, John Grismand, and Thomas Dewe, 1622. With the beautiful frontispiece, the fine portrait of Prince Henry and all the curious maps engraved by William Hole.
 Folio, full red morocco, gilt, gilt edges, by Bedford.
First Editions of both parts. VERY RARE.

*The author of this grand old work was contemporary with Shakespeare, being one year his senior. Coleridge says of him—"Drayton is a sweet poet, and Selden's notes to the earlier part of the Poly-Olbion are well worth perusal. * * * yet there are instances of sublimity in Drayton." Ellis says—"His Poly-Olbion is certainly a wonderful work, exhibiting at once the learning of an Historian, an Antiquary, a Naturalist, and a Geographer, and embellished with the imagination of a poet." Other writers set a high value on the work.*

This copy lacks the both titles. The frontispiece, leaf of explanation, portrait of Prince Henry and the dedication (1 leaf) are all delicately repaired on the margins. The second part was published 10 years after the first, and when the two were bound together and issued, the second was frequently without the title page; otherwise a perfect and spotless copy, with all the preliminary leaves usually wanting.

POPE'S DUNCIAD. 1728.

- 390 (Pope, Alexander). The Dunciad. An Heroic Poem. In Three Books. (Woodcut scroll on title). Owl frontispiece. 12mo, unbound. Dublin, Printed, London Reprinted for A. Dodd. 1728
Unknown to Thoms, but may come between "c" and "d" of his list. This issue has two of the typographical errors noted in the early editions of this work, viz.: Page 5, note "Interludes" for "Enterludes"; page 6, line 94, "D——n" for "D——s"; with an advertisement of "The Progress of Dullness" on verso of page 51, followed by a "Key to the Dunciad" of 4 pages. There were three other issues of the work dated 1728, one bearing second edition, the other two third edition on the titles. After careful research this appears to have peculiarities not noted in any other issues of the First Edition noticed by Thoms.
